19-CV-610 (RWL)

ORDER

ROBERT W. LEHRBURGER, United States Magistrate Judge.

This resolves Plaintiffs' request to amend the Second Amended Complaint (Dkt. 176, 179). Plaintiff's application is denied. The time to amend as of right expired long ago. The new allegations are collateral to the underlying dispute, and they come at the end of discovery, albeit due to the timing of the events at issue. If Plaintiffs obtain a judgment in their favor, and if Defendants do not satisfy it as required, Plaintiffs will be able to pursue their allegations of alter-ego, fraudulent conveyance, and the like at that time. That said, if the deposition of Mr. Dash has not yet been completed, Plaintiffs may ask questions at its continuation concerning the facts surrounding transfer of Defendants' assets. The current schedule remains in place.

SO ORDERED.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "RWL" or similar, written over a horizontal line.
